

SIR, 2007
Andrews
Flint
Muir-Wilson
Nero

Welcome to (SIR) Strategic Individualized Reading. During this quarter, you will work on one or two of the following learning modules:

- Content Area Reading (improving reading comprehension in all classes)
- Vocabulary
- Study Skill/Test Taking Strategies
- Reading Fluency/Speed
- Making Reading/Writing Connections

Effort:

All students are expected to give 100% effort in this class. This means paying attention in class, coming to class on time, bringing proper materials to class, and completing all in-class assignments. Students should strive to do their best, and should realize that their best can always get better.

Required Texts:

Be a Better Reader or Study Skills Simplified

Your teacher will indicate which book you will need.

Various other classroom materials will be used throughout the course, which your teacher will give you.

Supplies Needed:

- Pocket folder to be kept in the room
- Notebook paper or thin notebook
- Pencil and/or pen

Grades:

Grades will be based on class work, participation, and homework.